

Taking FLIGHT

You've got Dragons – Easy read call out

Who are we?

We are Taking Flight Theatre Company: https://www.takingflighttheatre.org.uk/
We make bold and unusual theatre.
We work inclusively with Deaf, disabled, and neurodivergent actors and creatives.

Access is really important to us;
both on and off stage!

This is a co-production with Pontio
Arts Centre in Bangor.

What's the show?

The show is called "You've got Dragons".

It's based on the book "You've got Dragons" by Kathryn Cave, illustrated by Nick Maland.

The show is written by Manon
Steffan-Ros.

The show will be performed in:
BSL (British Sign Language) and Welsh.
And BSL and English.

There will be loads of access including creative captions, audio description and more!

The show will open in June and tour
until mid-August 2024.

This is an ITC contract.

What are we looking for?

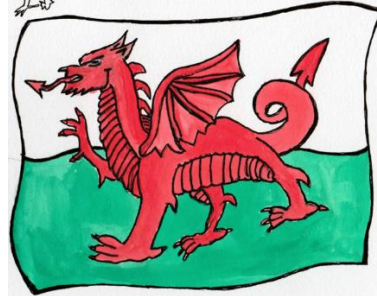

We are looking for actors who are:

Good team players

Have experience with new scripts.

Fluent Welsh speakers

Fluent in BSL

Actor/ Musicians

Deaf, disabled, and neurodivergent actors are very welcome to apply.

How to apply:

Send a CV, photo, and cover letter to elise@takingflighttheatre.co.uk
By 8th December 2023.

You're welcome to apply in BSL,
Welsh or English.

This can be written, filmed, or recorded as audio.

Auditions will be at Chapter Arts
Centre on the 10th or 11th Jan 2024.

